

I strongly urge you to take no action that would lessen the telephone privacy law enacted by the state of Indiana. Since this law came into effect I receive personal phone calls ONLY. No more annoying telemarketers. I used to receive 5-10 calls peer week and if the call was made while no one was home I would have 4-5 listings on the caller-id from the same number.

Again, I urge you to please leave a good thing alone!